

Custom Murals by MuralMom.com Help Families Easily, Enjoyably and Affordably turn their Child's Room into a Masterpiece

GUELPH, Canada – 25 October, 2009. -- MuralMom.com has created an easy, enjoyable and affordable way for families to transform their child's room into an artistic masterpiece: customized wall murals.

Operated by trained illustrator and graphic artist Camilla Havlik-Patten, the MuralMom.com process of creating beautiful murals is a simple, supported, low-cost and surprisingly easy.

Phase one involves a collaboration between Camilla and the family to decide upon a unique, special mural design – whether that's comic book superheroes, a silhouette of the New York City skyline, happy animals on parade, or anything else fun, imaginative and creative.

Phase two is where Camilla creates the custom mural stencil. The length of this phase depends on the complexity and size of the mural. Generally speaking, it takes Camilla about two weeks to go from the concept phase to shipping out a finished mural stencil.

Phase three is when families receive the mural template in the mail, get the supplies they need, and start painting. The process can take anywhere from a few days to a couple of months, depending on how swiftly – or leisurely – families wish to complete the mural. Throughout this process, families are supported each step of the way by Camilla's clear and "no artistic talent required" instructions, and by a library of helpful how-to video tutorials available on the MuralMom.com website. And if families get stuck, they can always get in touch with "Mural Mom" Camilla for advice and guidance.

Mural costs vary, depending on the complexity and size. Yet it's easy to say that MuralMom.com murals are significantly more affordable and budget-friendly than hiring a professional artist to complete the work in-house.

"Many of my clients don't think they have the artistic skill or know-how to do something like this," notes Camilla, who has been designing murals for 15 years. "But they soon realize just how easy and fun it really is. And the feeling that I get knowing that I empowered them to transform their mural dream into a living reality is truly rewarding. There's nothing quite like it!"
